

Pool Enclosure Collective is proud to announce...

The most innovative product in the Pool Enclosure Industry in years.

The Trac Beam is a revolutionary aluminum beam system specifically designed for the screen enclosure industry. Created in response to the large amount of downed screen enclosures using the old uncertified legacy beams, in the catastrophic hurricane season of 2004. Trac Beam is made out of a totally new and different alloy than the old standard beam. It is at least 40% stronger than the old legacy beam.
